

Product Overview

Gavin Power

Why this project?

- Strategy games are often extremely complex
- Some players, including myself, lose track of tasks
- In its final state, the system will provide relevant recommendations to players

Who is this project for?

- This project is designed for both regular users and strategy game players
- Regular users will be able to create boards, cards, and lists like other platforms
- Strategy game players will be able to receive recommendations for new cards and lists based on the game they are playing

Roadmap

- The project is currently in a barebones state
- Some key features to still be added
  - Log out button
  - Edit and delete boards, cards, and lists
  - Recommendation system
- Aesthetics of the site need to be heavily refined
